

MAR 10 1967

FOIAb3b

Deaths Elsewhere

Texas Leader Hoblitzelle

DALLAS, Tex., March 9

(AP) — Karl Hoblitzelle, 87, Dallas theater magnate and longtime civic and political power, died at his home yesterday.

Mr. Hoblitzelle was president of Interstate Circuit Inc., and of Texas Consolidated Theaters Inc.

He came to Dallas from St. Louis and had wide business and financial interests in Texas.

Mr. Hoblitzelle established the Hoblitzelle Foundation. At his death he was chairman emeritus of the board of directors of the Dallas Republic National Bank.

Born in 1879 in St. Louis, Mr. Hoblitzelle was the son of a former Confederate soldier. His mother was the daughter of Col. George Knapp, founder and publisher of the Missouri Gazette, the forerunner of the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

The Hoblitzelle Foundation was recently in the news, named as one of the pipelines through which the Central Intelligence Agency supplied money to various groups.

Dr. John M. Huff, 71, public health director for Norfolk, Va., from 1946 to 1964; in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Antonio Costa e Silva, older brother of president-elect Arthur Costa e Silva of Brazil; in Porto Alegre, Brazil.

Florence Rockne Fairfield, 67, youngest sister of the late Knute Rockne; in Tampa, Fla.

Geoffrey Roberts, 80, a leading British prosecutor at the Nuremberg war crimes trials; in London.

CPYRGHT